

HMICS Twitter policy

Content

The @HMICS Twitter account is managed by HMICS.

We do not use any automation (such as tools which generate information from RSS feeds) to post content on Twitter.

If you follow us, you can expect up to 5 tweets per week covering the following:

- Alerts on HMICS publications
- Invitations to provide feedback on specific issues
- Information from our team about what they're doing
- Occasional live coverage of events

Following

If you follow @HMICS we may follow you back. Being followed by @HMICS does not imply endorsement of any kind.

Availability

We will update and monitor our Twitter account during office hours, Monday to Friday. Twitter may occasionally be unavailable and HMICS accepts no responsibility for lack of service due to Twitter downtime.

@Replies and Direct Messages

We welcome feedback and ideas from all our followers, and endeavour to join the conversation where possible. However, we are not able to reply individually to all the messages we receive via Twitter.

The HMICS team reads all @replies and Direct Messages and ensures that any emerging themes or helpful suggestions are passed to the relevant people in HMICS.

The usual ways of contacting HMICS are detailed in the contact us section of our website.
