

HMICS Expenditure April 2011 to March 2012

Expenditure in relation to overseas travel
Expenditure on overseas travel is mainly incurred through the sharing of our professional expertise, knowledge and advice with other public sector bodies and scrutiny organisations from other countries. This information will be updated quarterly.
Start	End	Expenditure	Reason
None

Expenditure in relation to hospitality and entertainment given
HMICS is committed to spending the money it receives properly, efficiently and effectively. Expenditure by HMICS in relation to hospitality and entertainment is very small and mostly incurred when we share our expertise with organisations from other countries. This information will be updated quarterly.
Date	Description	Amount
13 May 2011	Painting of Scottish Parliament purchased as a gift for the retiring secretary of the Head of Inspectorates forum. The painting was purchased by HMICS for the secretary of the Heads of Inspectorate forum on behalf of the other Inspectorate heads for years of loyal voluntary service. It was paid for by HMICS as hosts of her final meeting.	£70.00
18 January 2012	Apex Hotel to facilitate a discussion around HMICS' future local policing inspection model. Room hire (£155), tea/coffee (£70.80) and lunch (£99). 6 attendees.	£324.80
7 February 2012	Business Lunch (HM Inspector, President ACPOS, DCC Strathclyde Police)	£28.75
14 February 2012	Business Lunch (HM Inspector and Chief Executive Scottish Business Crime Centre)	£26.00

NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED

Expenditure in relation to external consultancy
The Scottish Government defines 'consultancy' as including a wide range of professional services such as management consultancy, IT consultancy, financial consultancy, construction and infrastructure related consultancy, research and evaluation and policy development. HMICS mainly uses external consultancy to undertake specific pieces of work which requires expertise which is not readily available in house. This information will be updated quarterly.
Payee	Amount	Date	Description
None

Expenditure in relation to public relations
The Scottish Government defines 'public relations' as including media and parliamentary relations, marketing research and evaluation (monitoring), branding and design, corporate communications, publications and printing, digital communication, advertising and media planning, marketing, promotional events, external events, sponsorship and conferences and exhibitions.
Area	Expense	Description of expense
Digital Communication	£5,000.00	Design, development, delivery (including hosting charges) of new website for HMICS by Scottish Government Information Services and Information Systems.
Publications and Printing	£2,384.13	Design, publishing and web conversion for HMICS annual report 2010/11

Items of expenditure over £25,000
This information will be updated quarterly.
Payee	Amount	Date	Description
None

Remuneration in excess of £150,000
The Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010, section 31(4) requires listed public bodies to publish a statement specifying the number of individuals who received remuneration during that financial year in excess of £150,000. This is updated annually.
No. of individuals	Detail
1	HM Inspector of Constabulary

NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED

NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED

Hospitality and gifts disclosures (received)
Here you can find information about hospitality and gifts received by HMICS. This information will be updated quarterly.
Date	Recipient	From	Disclosure		Approx value (if known)
			Hospitality	Gift
27 January 2012	Andrew Laing	Strathclyde Police	Invitation to attend force Burns supper.		£100.00

NOT PROTECTIVELY MARKED